

I Sing A Song of the Saints of God

as found in the 1982 Hymnal #293

Words: Lesbia Scott (1898-1986)

Music: Grand Isle, John Henry Hopkins (1861-1945)

I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true,
Who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew.
And one was a doctor, and one was a queen, and one was a shepherdess on the green: they were all of them saints of God and I mean,
God helping, to be one too.

They lived not only in ages past, there are hundreds and thousands still,
The world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will.
You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, in church, or in trains,
Or in shops, or at tea, for the saints of God are just folk like me,
And I mean to be one too.
