

I Sing the Almighty Power of God

as found in the 1982 Hymnal #398

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Music: Forest Green, English melody

I sing the almighty power of God, that made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies.

I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command, and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his Word, and then pronounced them good.

Lord, how thy wonders are displayed, where'er I turn my eye,
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky!

There's not a plant or flower below, but makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from thy throne;

While all that borrows life from thee is ever in thy care,
And everywhere that I could be, thou, God, art present there.
